

Bodywork Practitioner — Craniosacral Therapist
Independent Contractor — Part-Time for Naturopathic Medicine Clinic

Dr. Tara Tranguch, ND, LLC, a Naturopathic Clinic in Woodbury, CT, is looking for a skilled Bodywork Practitioner trained in Craniosacral Therapy to join our team. This part-time independent contractor position (1-2 days to start) is perfect for someone passionate about helping clients improve their structural and emotional wellness.

Our clinic offers vitalistic naturopathic medicine providing personalized, highly individualized care that treats the whole person while empowering them to be an active part of their health journey. We offer a healing environment that is supportive, approachable and joyful.

Knowledge and skills required:

- Certified training in Craniosacral Therapy
- Additional bodywork modalities such as stretching, massage, or Reiki (preferred, but optional)
- Passion for helping clients and a positive, professional attitude
- Interest in vitalistic naturopathic medicine

Services and amenities provided:

- Fully equipped Earthworks massage table, sheets, blanket, laundry service, and support cushions
- In-person front desk services with online scheduling integrated with your iCalendar
- Training in our online scheduling and charting software
- Marketing support online, via print, and in-office to attract clients

Competitive session-based pay, discussed during the interview.

Independent contractors provide their own liability insurance
